

May '07 Prayer Calendar

		Market Day	1	2	3	4	5
		Praise God for the nutritious fruits and vegetables from the market today. Pray for the health of the children.	Pray for Jose, that he will continue to clearly see the hand of God in his life, and in his ministry. Pray for him to be strengthened and encouraged.	Pray that the hearts of the children will be open to the message of hope found in Christ. Pray that others will see a difference in their lives and want to find that hope for themselves.	Pray for the financial resources needed for the current ministry programs and staff salaries.	Praise God for the volunteers who have spent many hours preparing for the tournament on Monday, and those who are taking time away from their jobs and families to make it a success.
6	7	Market Day	8	9	10	11	12
Pray as the final preparations are made for the Atlanta Golf Tournament tomorrow that every detail is taken care of. Pray for sunny weather for the tournament.	Pray that the heart of each golfer at the tournament today will be touched in a special way.	Pray for the hearts and lives of the men and women who generously give their fruits and vegetables for the children and their families each week.	Pray that the documents will be finalized as promised to establish HOPE as a non-profit organization in Guatemala.	Pray for the families of each of the staff members who are so gracious to share their time with the ministry.	Pray as plans are finalized to ship the container of supplies from the US. Thank God for those who gave generously, and pray that it is received in Guatemala without incident.	Pray for safe travel for Tina as she travels to Guatemala, and that her time there will be an encouragement as she and the staff plan the July mission trip from Atlanta.
13	14	Market Day	15	16	17	18	19
Pray for the mothers of each of the children who work so hard to support their families. Pray that this will be a day of peace and rest.	Pray that sponsors are found for every child in the ministry. Thank God for those who are already sponsoring, and pray for many more to be raised up, willing to change a child's life.	Pray for the families as they receive the fresh fruits and vegetables today. Pray that the generosity of others gives them a clearer image of the Cross.	Pray for the families in the neighborhood surrounding the ministry, that they would see the difference, and feel the need to surrender their lives to Christ.	Pray for Hugo as he helps everyday in the ministry, that he will be blessed and encouraged by serving the children.	Pray for the young children in the ministry, that their precious hearts will be guarded and their eyes opened to the life that they can have because there is hope.	Pray for teams from the US who are preparing to serve in Guatemala this summer, that each member of the team will be changed because of this experience.
20	21	Market Day	22	23	24	25	26
Pray for staff members in the US who are volunteering their time for the ministry, that their hearts would be encouraged and their families would support their commitments.	Pray as future plans are being made for the ministry, that God would give clear direction.	Pray for Eduardo and the staff as they minister to the men and women at the market, that many lives would be changed because of their ministry.	Pray for churches and other volunteers in Guatemala City to see the need and offer their time and resources to the ministry.	Pray for the safety of the children, families, and staff, as they are living and working daily in a very dangerous area.	Pray for the staff and volunteers leading the ministry, for unity, strength, wisdom, and joy as they serve the children and one another.	Pray for the children who are celebrating birthdays this month, that they will know the true joy and peace found in Christ.
27	28	Market Day	29	30	31	<h2>Hope for Guatemala</h2>
Praise God for the changed hearts of so many children, their families, friends, and neighbors.	Pray that God will continue to raise up volunteers in the US and Guatemala to serve in the ministry.	Praise God for the generosity of the men and women at the market who give enough fruits and vegetables each week to feed the children and send bags home for their families.	Pray that financial donors will be raised up to allow for future expansion of the ministry programs.	Pray for the youth in the ministry, that their lives will be changed and they will be examples to other young people around them.
